DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 38, 50-67 and 69, drawn to an abrasive tool and a method for grinding using the tool, classified in class 451, subclass 28.

II. Claims 70-93, drawn to method of making agglomerates abrasive grains and the agglomerates abrasive grains made by the method, classified in class 51, subclass 298.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process, e.g., an abrasive tool having the recited limitations made by prior art methods as admitted by the Applicant on pages 1-7.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. During a telephone conversation with Ms. Porter on Tuesday November 9, 2004 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claims 70-93. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 38, 50-67 and 69 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Specification

6. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

7. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the reference to the related application should not be under the heading of "Background of the Invention".

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claims 70-93 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

10. Regarding claims 70 and 84, the language as written renders the claims indefinite. In section "a)" (line 2) of the claims, "the grain" appears to refer to the preamble, but in section "d)" the "grain" is recited to bond with the binder and "a plurality of grains" is recited which lacks antecedent basis, rendering the claims indefinite. Further in section "e)" the reference to the "initial" creates ambiguity, since it is unclear whether the sintered agglomerates now created have a three-dimensional shape, a loose packing...or the initial refers to particles prior to the steps (a-d).

11. Claim 91 recites the limitation "the granule" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

12. Regarding claim 93, the language as written renders the claim indefinite, i.e., "the apparent volume" lacks sufficient antecedent basis; it is unclear what the relative density is, is it the density of the agglomerates (produced) over the density of the abrasive grains and the binder used to make the agglomerates? Or is it a ratio of volume (agglomerates produced) over volume of said grains and binder?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

13. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

14. Claims 84-93 (as best understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Applicant's Admitted Prior Art (AAPA).

Prior art as admitted by the Applicant, e.g., pages 1-7 meets all the limitations, since product-by-process claims are not limited to the manipulations of the process steps, only the structure implied by the steps, thus sintered agglomerates of abrasive grain produced by the method of prior art, as admitted by the applicant, (e.g., US 4,799,939, US 4,541,842 in view of different types of abrasive grains or fillers; bond materials; average size and porosity) would meet all the structural limitations, i.e., sintered agglomerated grains of certain size, material and Porosity. (See MPEP 2113 [R-1]).

Double Patenting

15. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970);and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

16. Claims 84-93 (as best understood) are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 14-39 of U.S. Patent No. 6,797,023. The claims for the above US Patent, recite an abrasive comprising agglomerate grains made by the method as recited except for the packing density (as best understood), however, the density recited would depend on size and type of grains used, both modifications (with respect to size and/or type of material) well within the knowledge of one of ordinary skill in the art, depending on the workpiece and/or operational parameters.

Allowable Subject Matter

17. Claims 70-83 (as best understood) would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

18. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Prior art does not disclose or suggest a method of producing agglomerates of abrasive grains including the steps as recited.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

19. Prior art made of record and not relied upon are considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Gagliardi et al., and Ho are cited to show related inventions.
